Welcome

Welcome to the July issue of the Envision Alumni Association newsletter, a publication of NYLF, JrNYLC, GYLC, NYLC, ISLP, and more. It's hard to believe our 2015 programs will be over next week. Our team has worked tirelessly to create life-changing experiences for more than 24,000 scholars this year. At Envision, we help students turn their career and life aspirations into reality. Our desire is that every student has that light switch moment through real world experiences that enable them to discover their passion, try out a future career, and positively impact the world around them.

While the students and faculty have been busy in the field, the HQ staff has been hard at work to enhance your Alumni Association experience. We encourage you to visit EnvisionAlumni.com for new information, contests, and more.

I STAND OUT.

I act, I lead.

I don't fear hard work. Hard work fears me.

I KNOW FAILURE ISN'T FATAL AND SUCCESS ISN'T FINAL.

IT'S CONTINUING THAT COUNTS.

I STUDY THE PAST,

Along with others like me.

LIVE IN THE PRESENT,

WE'RE KINDRED SPIRITS,

SEEKERS OF KNOWLEDGE.

AND I'M

WE'RE FINDERS OF THE TRUTH.

what's coming next.

CONNECTED FOR THE FUTURE.

WE ARE ENVISION ALUMNI

& TOGETHER WE STAND OUT.

Meet Our Alumni Interns

Meet Rebeca and Shynelle, the hardworking alumna who have been logging the miles and capturing Envision events throughout the Washington, DC metro area this summer. From live tweeting to photographing and interviewing students to meeting amazing Faculty Advisors and speakers, these two have been busy. Thank you for your hard work this summer. We will miss you!

Upcoming Complimentary Webinars

Success in the 21st century requires more than good grades and academic success. You must also master the applied skills, behaviors, and experiences that aren't taught in a classroom. Build upon your previous Envision experience and join Andrew Potter, Chief Academic Officer at Envision, for a complimentary webinar to help you prepare for your future.

Andrew will lead a 30-minute webinar for alumni and parents on Wednesday, August 12.
