What is NYLF National Security?

The National Youth Leadership Forum (NYLF): National Security – Diplomacy, Intelligence & Defense provides an opportunity for high-achieving high school students with a passion for public service to receive hands-on learning in how the U.S. plans for peace and prepares for crisis.

While at the program, held in Washington, DC and hosted at the University of Maryland, College Park over six days, students enjoy exclusive access to government agencies and one-to-one interactions with industry professionals. Students also have the opportunity to take on the roles of top decision-makers in a national security simulation—Dark Web Dangers— where they will use critical thinking, leadership skills, conflict resolution, and public speaking skills to tackle complex national decisions.

Why should I or my child attend this program?

It is no secret that the world is changing. Due to rapid advancements in technology and automation, the jobs of yesterday are no longer the jobs of today, and the jobs of today are unlikely to be the jobs of tomorrow.

We are already seeing the educational impact of this technological shift. While diplomas and degrees served their holders so well in the past, more and more they are being seen as insufficient by many employers. More than ever, it is essential that students gain tangible skills that set them apart from their peers; the kind of life-ready skills that can't be automated.

Founded on a 21st-century curriculum and learning techniques, NYLF National Security provides students with hands-on learning opportunities that challenge them to think in new ways and helps them establish and grow essential skills that will allow them to succeed in our ever-evolving world, all in an engaging and exhilarating atmosphere.

"Ally enjoyed getting to see firsthand how the "real world" works. She didn't realize how many working parts there are to accomplish a common goal. Making a ton of new friends was also a great benefit too!"

- Alisha, Mother of NYLF National Security Alumna

"This program was amazing! I made some great friends who I still hang with by visiting, and this program changed me so much. I recommend this program to everyone."

- Lily K, Alumna of NYLF National Security
